Many Events.

As you can see there are many events to get involved in over the next four months. And don't forget that if you're unable to attend any of these events, give one of the leaders a ring. It helps us when planning events to know how many to expect. Remember that missing a meeting without telling a leader could result in losing a point - and the edible prize!

Now read on. Take a look back at Summer Camp 1985 and find out more about the next four months....

NOTES

Note 1 - The Great Egg Race.

When I asked him about this event, Andrew Cox gave me the following quote:
 "An inter-patrol competition based on good, honest Scouting skills, with the ability to walk on water. Meet at the Institute at 7p.m. with a change of clothes and a towel. We'll transport you to where you'll use the evening catchphrase 'HELLO SAILOR'."
 Well, I have always wondered....

Note 2 - Adderbury Group's Cub and Scout Camp 1985.

This camp will be an ideal chance for you to meet the oldest Cubs, if you don't already know them. The Cubs will be able to sample Scouting during the weekend of games and activities. More specific details will be issued nearer the time. Make sure you are there for what the Cub and Scout Leaders hope will become an annual event. (Please note the dates are set PROVISIONALLY.)

Note 3 - The Night Wide Game of '85.

During last year's game it rained....and rained....and rained. Don't worry though - it won't rain this year! After last year's game the P.L.s made suggestions for this year's game. We have kept these in mind and planned the ultimate Night Wide Game this year. Don't miss it - it's just one of the activities set for the Half Term holiday.

Note 4 - Christmas Scouting.

Christmas is the only time you can't go to Scouts for two weeks running. But this Scouting need never be more than a sheet of paper away after we give you your Christmas Competition sheets. This will give you plenty to puzzle over. The answers will be collected on 7th January and then prizes will be awarded. Our Festive Fayre on the last Tuesday before Christmas will contain the usual crazy games, the Sounds and Pictures Quiz and a mini party afterwards. Finally we will be running the very popular Christmas Card Delivery Service again. Try to be there to help, and remember that the person who raises the most money wins a prize! How do we do it?

Merry Xmas!
